Gillygooley Walking Club

Gillygooley Walking Club have just completed another successful summer season with an enrolment of over 30 members. The club which is based in Gillygooley Orange Hall draws its membership from both an urban and rural base. Both leisurely and more challenging routes are designed to suit all abilities with the emphasis on improving ones fitness level. Another important aspect of the club is the social interaction as each walk concludes with a welcome cup of tea and fellowship.

Gillygooley 2nd Youth (50+ Club)

Although hall based activities ceased for the season in May, members do not believe in letting the grass grow under their feet as several out of centre activities were organised for the summer months. In May members travelled to Garden Show Ireland at Hillsborough Castle Grounds and the following month participated in a good relations project jointly with Lifford & Clonleigh Club. Following lunch both clubs enjoyed a tour of the Titanic Exhibition at the Ulster American Folk Park. On Saturday 30th June members travelled to Carrick-on-Shannon stopping on route at Letterbreen Methodist Church hall for coffee and fellowship. On arrival at Carrick-on-Shannon members visited St Georges Heritage & visitors centre which has been a Church of Ireland Church for almost 200 years and doubles as a place of worship and heritage centre. Before lunch they also visited the Costello Memorial Chapel where the earthly remains of Mary Costella and her husband are laid to rest. The chapel is the second smallest in the world only surpassed by one smaller in the Holy Land. It is a remarkable example of mans deep affection for his wife who died in 1877 aged 46 years. The 16 ft long x 12 ft wide chapel was built by the former farmer as a lasting memorial to his wife's memory.

Following a leisurely cruise on the Shannon serenaded by local musicians members travelled to Corick House for an evening meal. The final trip of the summer season which was for less able members was to the "World of Owls" Randalstown which is a charitable sanctuary for owls, birds of prey and exotic animals in Northern Ireland. The party then enjoyed lunch in Truffles Restaurant before travelling to Antrim Gardens which have only recently re-opened following extensive landscaping. On the homeward journey members enjoyed an evening meal in the Braeside Restaurant, Cookstown.

The Club re-opens on Monday 24th September and meets on the last Monday of each month in Gillygooley Orange Hall. New members always welcome.

Community Heroes Receive Recognition

Gillygooley 2nd Youth (50+ Club) has been honoured by being awarded the top accolade for being the best group for older people within the Omagh District Council area. This award for the Community Heroes was sponsored by Omagh District Council and Ulster Herald. 2nd Youth's fabulous work in enriching the lives of older people physically and emotionally was recognised by those who nominated them. Iris Moffitt-Scott chairperson in receiving the coveted trophy expressed her surprise and delight at the group being nominated and said that she was completely overwhelmed they had win. Continuing she said the aim of the group was alleviating loneliness and isolation and encouraging older people to keep mentally and physically active.

Church News in Brief

By Gillygooley Correspondent

New Moderator

Rev. Ray Patton minister of Ballygilbert Church which is located on the Belfast – Bangor road was elected as the new Moderator at the General Assembly on the 18th May which was one week earlier than usual due to the Queens Diamond Jubilee Celebrations. Rev. Patton is a native of Co. Fermanagh and is from a farming background. Mr Patton describes his ministry as one of encouraging congregational life and reaching out into the community believing that a church should be “a living caring community of Christ’s people reaching out to others.” His Ballygilbert Congregation has about 400 families.

Presbyterian Summer Outreach

Seventeen teams from the Presbyterian Church in Ireland Youth & Childrens Ministry made up of 180 volunteers from over Ireland took part in Summer Outreach. The young Presbyterians took their message to Romania, Ukraine, Italy and London. The London team participated in holiday Bible Clubs and street work reaching out to people from all around the world at the Olympic Games. They were based in the multi-cultural community of Stratford in East London from July 28th to August 12th the home of the Olympic village and many of the events.

Practical Help for Students

The Presbyterian Church in Ireland through its board of social witness has some volunteering opportunities available for university interm students. The board offers one year opportunities for people who would like to gain experience in social care/social work area before committing themselves to either a programme of study or career employment. The board are also looking for people with experience of horticulture, environmental management and conservation. Further information is available from Linda Wray at Presbyterian Assembly buildings – tel 028 9041 7234.

New Editor for Presbyterian Herald

Sarah Henderson who has worked in publishing has for the last eight years worked in Presbyterian Communications department at Church House has taken over this position. Sarah is a member of Trinity Presbyterian Church in Bangor and the September issue of the Herald will be her first edition. Sarah who is 34 says the church is doing exciting things whether it is lobbying government on a range of issues, establishing an active media presence, providing practical care through our homes for older people and carrying out ministry throughout Ireland. In the September issue she adopts the Moderators theme of ‘New Beginnings’

Moderator visits Indonesia

Rev Patton has spent a three week tour of Indonesia to meet with Presbyterian overseas personel, representatives of partner churches and to see projects that Irish Presbyterians have been supporting. The Church has been supporting the projects for forty years in Indonesia the fourth largest country in the world with 246 million people spread over several islands and with a Protestant Church membership of approx. 15 million.

Gossiping is a Sin

I want to share with you something I recently read in a national newspaper.

Canada’s largest Protestant denomination “the United Church in Canada is urging congregations to stop gossiping, likening it to gambling and other evils of Society”

Gossip can cause people to lose their jobs, create difficulties within relationships, cause extreme hurt and destroy peoples reputations.

Accordingly a motion under consideration at the church’s 41st General Council held in Ottawa instilled a lively debate. Wise sentiments and something many of us are guilty of from time to time. A rule of thumb should be if one hears something check out its source or authority before spreading it further or better still “keep it to one self” and the truth will eventually emerge if the rumour has foundation.

James Chapter 3 verse 5-11

"Likewise the tongue is a small part of the body, but it makes great boasts. Consider what a great forest is set on fire by a small spark. The tongue also is a fire, a world of evil among the parts of the body. It corrupts the whole person, sets the whole course of his life on fire, and itself set on fire by hell.

All kinds of animals, birds, reptiles and creatures of the sea are being tamed and have been tamed by man, but no man can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.

With the tongue we can praise our Lord and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in God's likeness. Out of the same mouth come praise and cursing. My brothers, which should not be. Can both fresh water and salt water flow from the same spring? My brothers, can a fig-tree bear olives, or a grapevine bear figs? Neither can a salt spring produce fresh water."

"THE GRACE OF GIVING"

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, meeting in June 2012, commends "The Grace of Giving" initiative to the whole Church

Two years ago the General Assembly passed the following resolution: "That the General Assembly support a Church-wide policy to encourage Presbyterians to plan their Christian generosity as a percentage of their income and appoint an ad-hoc Committee to plan how this policy may be encouraged throughout the Church" (General Assembly 2010).

Since then a small committee has been looking at how our church members can be encouraged to give regularly, sacrificially and realistically. This is a challenging task, not least because people are very sensitive when it comes to money matters and also we have been living through a time of deep recession where some people are finding it hard to make ends meet and some are losing their jobs.

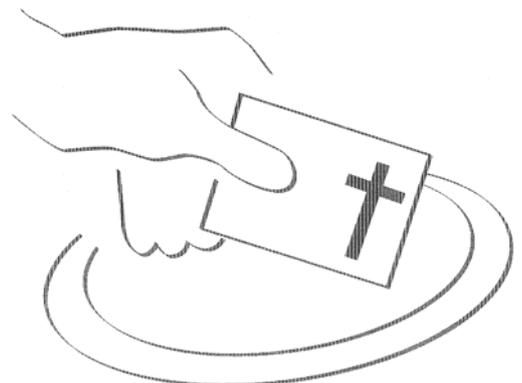

Despite this the committee was convinced that the issue of giving among our general membership needs to be faced and a strategy undertaken to continue to raise our people's planned giving to the levels encouraged in the Bible and often spoken of by our Lord. Those who have researched this issue estimate that 50% of churches are struggling to meet recurrent running costs and lack of finance is a major inhibitor for churches seeking to fulfil their mission goals.

The committee believes that education is key in the process of encouraging giving and the church wide strategy, launched at the 2012 General Assembly, called 'The Grace of Giving' initiative aims to do a number of things:

- Encourage ministers to speak on this topic where before they may have been reluctant.
- Provide resources for churches to help teach on this important issue.
- Raise the level of our planned giving to more realistic levels especially among our communicant membership as a loving response to the generous grace of God shown to us.
- Give help and referral resources for ministers to assist the increasing number of people struggling with finance management and debt issues. (Christians Against Poverty)
- Keep the issue before our people over the next few years with on-going resources and information.

The 2012 General Assembly passed the following resolutions:

1. That the General Assembly commend the "Grace of Giving" initiative to the whole Church
2. That the General Assembly, conscious of the difficulties in which people may find themselves in the current recession, call congregations to be aware that there may be individuals and families with whose basic needs local congregation may be able to assist.
3. That the General Assembly request ministers to preach and teach regularly about the importance of Christian generosity as a percentage of what is received.

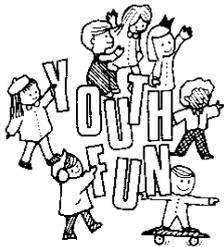

Olympic Torch

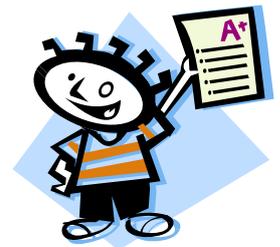

The community of Gillygooley gave a warm welcome to the Olympic Torch when it passed through Omagh on the 5th June. As always our cameraman was on hand to capture some of the action.

Pictured above: Iris Moffitt-Scott with Bob Lingwood, following the arrival of the Olympic Torch Flame in Omagh. Iris and Bob are members of Omagh Churches Forum, an organisation which meets regularly to discuss pastoral and community issues of mutual benefit to the area. Bob will be the guest speaker at a meeting of Gillygooley 2nd Youth in November.

Use the words you have found to fill in the blank spaces in the following passages:

In the Presbyterian church the service begins with a quotation from scripture which explains why Christians _____ followers.

Then the minister explains the Presbyterian belief in _____ baptism.

The _____ stand up and make their _____ to bring up the child as a _____. At this point we are reminded that the congregation also has a role to play because they have to give good example.

Now we have the act of baptism where the _____ is _____ over the baby's head and the congregation reply Amen to the words of baptism.

Finally the Minister holds the baby and on behalf of the church he receives the child into _____ of the Christian Family. We end with a _____.

Is Trinity an “umbrella organisation”?

Last chance-October!!

During 2012 fifteen umbrellas have been left behind in Trinity Church porch. It has been suggested that this number represents one for each member of the Church choir on a good day, but perhaps more realistically it is an oblique measure of our recent poor weather. Anyway, the search is now on for their owners. Anyone who recognises an umbrella from the photo is invited to either claim it back OR inform the rightful owner where it may be found. At the end of October the Church committee will decide on their disposal or otherwise.

Views from the pews

Why are the front middle pews in Trinity almost always left empty? Viewed from the front this gives the false impression of the size of the congregation. Are Trinity members naturally shy or is it simply a presbyterian trait to “fill” from the back?

Editors Note: If YOU have questions Trinity News wants to hear them. Speak to any member of Session or Committee or put your question in the box at the entrance porch.

Childrens Service at Gillygooley

A capacity congregation was present for the annual Childrens Service on Sunday 10th June. Rev Herron welcomed everyone and invited several of the young people to take part in the service. Participating in the call to worship were Tyler Donnell, Helena Caldwell and Glenn McKinley who read from 1st Corinthians. Leading the prayers were Karen King, Stephanie Hunter, Jack Stevenson and Nicola Hemphill and the offering was taken up by Rebecca & George Donnell, Ryan Crawford and Jason King. Others who took part in the service were Kellie Anderson, Calvin McKinley and Stephen Fleming.

The Rev Herron received a presentation from the Sunday School which he received on behalf of the “Stand by me” project. This is the Youth and Sunday School project of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland for 2011/2012. The presentation was made by Oliver King and Timothy Donnell. The accompanist for the service was Amanda Graham who also trained the junior choir. Emma Hunter also made a musical contribution to the service.

During the service Rev Herron and Beverley Fleming Sunday School Superintendent presented the prizes to the children. Following the service everyone was invited to the Orange Hall for morning coffee which was served by members of the Bible Class.

CHILDRENS DAY AT TRINITY

Sunday 10th June saw Trinity hold its Childrens Service and Presentation of Prizes. Church goers were greeted by Scott McGrew, Henry Thompson, Mark Fenwick, Oliver Irwin, Kyle Johnston, Charlie Fenwick and Lucy Reid. Rebecca Stewart and Graham Carson led the Call to Worship and a combination of Matthew Fenwick, Amy Patterson and Emma Moore led an Act of Praise. Rachel Patterson read a prayer after which the Childrens Choir sang 'The Olympics are coming' and 'I wish I could be in the Olympics'. Matthew Patterson read from 1 Corinthians and then it was the turn of Lucy Reid and Anna Chilton to present Rev Herron with a cheque for £150 in aid of 'Stand by me'. The money was raised by the children in the Sunday School & Bible Class. A cheque was also presented by Molly Buchanan to Adele Donald to aid her in her travels in the summer as part of Project Uganda. Prayers for others were led by Hannah Patterson and Emma Moore after which the Childrens Choir sang 'Hold it high'. The offering was collected by Rebecca Stewart, Luke McFarland, Ellie Duncan and Chelsea Johnston then Stephen Armstrong read the offering prayer.

Queen's Diamond Jubilee

Hundreds of people from a wide area travelled to the scenic Pigeon Top for an evening of celebration and entertainment to mark the Diamond Jubilee of Queen Elizabeth II. Andrew Scott, chairman of Gillygooley Youth & Community Association, paid tribute to Queen Elizabeth for her faith, sense of duty and service to her country. She has reigned through some of the most profound and breathtaking changes which have taken place in our history, he said. Andrew then invited the chairpersons of the other two organisations to join him in a toast to her Majesty, which was followed by a rousing cheer from the large crowd gathered. The highlight of the evening was the lighting of three beacons by Ethel McClelland, Andrew Scott and Norman O'Donnell, chairpersons of the three organisations who staged the event: namely Gillygooley Youth & Community Development Association, Drumquin Orange Historical Society and Fireagh L.O.L. 468. The event was a re-enactment of a community celebration held in 1937, at the same location, when a bonfire was lit to celebrate the coronation of King George VI. Unlike the 1937 event when the mode of transport would have been horse, bicycle or walking to facilitate the large attendance, two mini buses conveyed those who did not wish to bring their vehicles to the mountain. The organisers welcomed the visit of Omagh District Council's vice-chairman Ross Hussey to the event, whose support was much appreciated. A non-stop four hours of entertainment preceded the lighting of the beacons. On stage, Leslie Matthews, Lynsey Scott, Julie Donnell, Kyra McKinley and Linkbox Joe entertained. Others who entertained were Drumquin Blue Thistle Dancers, Gillygooley and Drumquin Pipe Bands who joined together in a grand finale. The event was compered by Raymond King, vice-chairman of Gillygooley Y.C.D.A. Entertainment for the children was provided in the form of bouncy castle, face painting etc. To relinquish hunger pangs from the good mountain air, a B.B.Q. was held throughout the evening. The event was part-funded by The Ulster Scots Agency and Omagh District Council. Andrew Scott, chairperson of Gillygooley Y.C.D.A. and co-coordinator of the event, expressed thanks to everyone who had contributed to the success of the evening.

Gillygooley Sunday School BBQ

A most enjoyable barbeque and fun night was organised by the Gillygooley Sunday School teachers at Gillygooley Orange Hall on Saturday 9th June. Despite the inclement summer weather the conditions on the evening were most favourable. Gillygooley Congregation were delighted to welcome some of the parents and children from Trinity Congregation who it is hoped had an enjoyable evening. Thanks is expressed to everyone who organised the event as usual our camera person captured some of the activity.

Gillygooley Youth & Community Development Association Highly Commended

Gillygooley Youth & Community Development Association which was formally constituted in 1998 has been highly commended in the Omagh District Council and Ulster Herald Community Hero's awards. The group acts as an umbrella for all organisations using Gillygooley Orange Hall complex and has strived to improve community relations through delivering a programme of activities for everyone across the age spectrum. The award was in reorganisation of the association's contribution to society throughout the Omagh area.
